It's the Principal's Say !

On 27th July we observed the 1st anniversary of the demise of the late President APJ Abdul Kalam. It was not covered by the media and the government was satisfied with tokenisms – a formal statement by the Prime Minister that Dr Kalam was irreplaceable. However, ordinary people and children celebrated the day with spontaneous enthusiasm. Thousands flocked to Rameswaram to pay homage to their beloved Kalam. I intend to describe below some of the lesser known facts about this great man (mostly from the book "The Kalam Effect" by Mr. P M Nair, secretary to Dr. Kalam when he was the President). These are things we need to know and emulate to be true human beings and honourable citizens of our country.

1. Dr Kalam used to receive costly gifts whenever he went abroad as it is customary for many nations to give gifts to the visiting Head of State. Refusing the gift would become an insult to the nation and an embarrassment for India. So, he received them and on his return, Dr Kalam handed them over to the archives. Afterwards, he never even looked at them. He did not take even a pencil from the gifts received when he left Rashtrapathi Bhavan. Think of this attitude in the backdrop of the Supreme Court order on 2nd of August '16 asking all the former chief ministers of Uttar Pradesh to vacate in two months the official bungalows that they are still occupying. All the previous chief ministers from the time of Mr. N D Tiwari and Mr. Kalyan Singh are believed to be retaining their bungalows even today. Our politicians and leaders have the bad habit of 'getting' from the country, often abusing their power and political clout. "One of the basic differences between God and humans is, God gives, gives and forgives. But the human gets, gets, gets and forgets." We Indians need to change our attitude.

2. In 2002, the year Dr Kalam took over, the Ramadan month came in July-August. It was a regular practice for all the previous Presidents to host an Iftar party. Dr Kalam asked his secretary Mr Nair why he should host a party to people who are already well fed and asked him to find out how much would be the cost. Mr Nair told it costs around Rs. 22 lakhs. Dr Kalam asked him to donate that amount to a few selected orphanages in the form of food, dresses and blankets. The selection of orphanages was left to a team in Rashtrapathi Bhavan and Dr Kalam had no role in it. After the selection was made, Dr Kalam asked Mr Nair to come inside his room and gave him a cheque for Rs 1 lakh. He said that he is giving some amount from his personal savings and this should not be informed to anyone. Dr Kalam was extremely kind and compassionate to the less privileged in the society. He dreamt of every young person from the villages and poor families being brought to the main stream of a prosperous India.

Dr Kalam, though he was a devout Muslim, did not have Iftar parties in the years in which he was the President. In Indian context, perhaps Dr Kalam's most significant achievement was that he exposed the meaninglessness of religious identifications. He bore a typical Muslim name and did his namaz faithfully. But he was also a vegetarian, read Bagawad Gita and Bible, played Rudra Veena and listened to Karnatic music and songs every day. He was an Indian in the true sense of the term, one we all can truly imitate. Dr Kalam said, "For great men, religion is a way of making friends, small people make religion a fighting tool."

3. Dr Kalam invited 50 of his relatives to come to Delhi and they all stayed in Rashtrapathi Bhavan. He organised a bus for them to go around the city which was paid for by him. No official car was used. All their stay and food was calculated as per the instructions of Dr Kalam and the bill came to Rs 2 lakhs which he paid. In the history of this country no one has ever done it. Now, wait for the climax, Dr Kalam's elder brother stayed with him in his own room for the entire one week as Dr Kalam wanted his brother to stay with him. When they left, Dr Kalam wanted to pay rent for that room also. Imagine a President of country paying rent for the room in which he is staying. This was any way not agreed by the staff who thought his honesty was getting too much to handle!!! Dr Kalam is remembered and revered by millions today for the sincerity and uprightness of his personality and love for the country, which I urge my students to follow, and besides I entreat God that our netas and public servants may learn from the integrity of this noble soul.

4. In material terms, the "People's President" owned precious little, save his 2,500 books, a wrist watch, six shirts, four trousers, three suits and a pair of shoes. Dr Kalam did not own any property nor a fridge, TV, car or an air conditioner. This is the earning of a man who spent over five decades in public service, including his stint as President of the Republic. He survived on the royalty from his books and his pension. When he died there was no place for him to be buried. The Tamil Nadu government was kind enough to give a piece of land to lay him to rest in Rameshwaram. This is the simplicity and humility of this great soul. "A good character is the best tombstone. So, carve your name on hearts, not on marble." Dr Kalam has left an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of Indians in a manner few other public figures have in recent memory.

As I write this 'Principal's Say', it is the 11th day at Rio Olympics. India has still not won a single medal. Most of our stars have fallen by the wayside. 1.25 billion Indians were hoping that Deepa Karmakar would ensure a medal with her high risk Vault event to ensure India opens its account at the Olympics. But she came fourth. Congratulations Deepa! You did make us all proud with your daring performance. The deplorable state of our sports and games reveal the lack of will and determination, hypocrisy, nepotism and dishonesty of our government and sports officials. While countries with population of Bhubaneswar city figure in the list of medal winners, the second most populous country in the world could not win a medal. We hang our heads in shame! Dr Kalam warns the dishonest netas, "It meant people who are in high and responsible positions, if they go against righteousness, righteousness itself will get transformed into a destroyer."

From the Editor's desk

I am honoured to be a part of St. Arnold's School and fortunate to edit this issue of Arnold Tidings. It gives me immense pleasure to work under the leadership of Reverend Father K. C. Thomas, SVD, who guides us in every step to overcome the hurdles in achieving the noble cause of shaping the nation builders in their tender age.

A student today is an individual, is a real person with feelings of self respect, sensitivity, responsibility and compassion. We need to recognize, appreciate, applaud and foster the fine blend of sensibility in a child. Hence, this bulletin is to be viewed as a launch pad for children's creativity where sky is the limit. And St. Arnold's strives relentlessly to attain this noble cause. This year our Principal Fr. K. C. Thomas took some more initiative to polish, we teachers, by taking us to Indore for a special training, which aimed at moulding teachers as mentors.

No doubt, the home stands as the first inspiring environment, where the basic human values are gradually instilled to shape children into complete beings. However, to meet the challenges, to deal with disappointments and to aim for higher goals are the efforts of both parents and teachers.

We were given valuable inputs and feed backs by the great mentor Fr. Vargese Alangarden, the rock of Universal Solidarity Movement. He trained us how a teacher can be a mentor and render help in the great mission of nation building by training the students to become visionary leaders with integrity.

There is 'nothing that influences behaviour so strongly than the presence of a significant other'. Teachers like parents, are those 'significant other' for students. Even though a teacher remains with the students for hardly six hours a day, the academic achievement and student's behaviour are immensely influenced by the quality of the teacher-student relationship.

Hence I must say that with the great support and encouragement of the teachers, our students have bagged numerous achievements in the various competitions that were held in and around Rourkela city. We are proud of them that they have brought laurels to the school. Recently we celebrated the Van Mahotsav, where the Scouts and Guides along with senior students participated in planting trees around the school campus.

This year to add cherry on the cake, our Class X Board results were truly outstanding as 22 students obtained CGPA 10. Besides academic success our activity specialists are working with dedication to bring out the hidden talents in the students.

I feel proud that the significance of a teacher has profoundly deepened with the word 'mentor.' The training at USM has given us the boost to do our job with dedication and love. Today the leading problem that our world faces is the deficiency of love. If all the educational efforts are carried out in an atmosphere of love and respect, not only would the education scenario be transformed, but the world itself would become a better place to live in.

If a country is to be corruption free and become a nation of beautiful minds, I strongly feel there are three key social members who can make a difference. They are the father, mother and the teacher. – Dr. Kalam

Be What You Are

Always love, believe and respect the three most important words of your life – I, Me and Myself.

The day you start to believe in yourself, love and respect your character, you become the most contented and the most peaceful man in this world. The place where you live seems to be extravagant and work you do is known to be extraordinary for the world, if you yourself believe in it. Every man in this world is born with distinct characteristic and supreme talent. A man who makes comparison between two people is not more than a fool. Wise men never change for fools. So, never change yourself for this pity world.

Be what you are!
Love what you are gifted with.
Please others with what you are.
Be the ruler of several hearts in this mortal world..

You and Me

You saw me today,
But I am not as you remember,
My eyes no longer sparkle,
I have changed since last September.

I was so full of life,
But now I am so cold!
My personality has been tarnished,
Though once I had a heart of gold.

I fell out of your life,
Just like leaves in the fall,
We were so very close,
But now I am not there at all.

I saw you today,
You're the same as I remember,
Your eyes still sparkle,
You have not changed since last September.

The Power of Words

Thoughts make words,
Words make deeds,
Deeds form habits,
Habits form character,
Character leads to destiny.

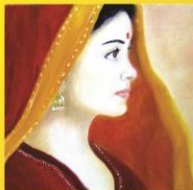

A careless word, may kindle strife,
A cruel word, may wreck a life,
A bitter word, may hate instill,
A brutal word, may smite and kill,
A gracious word, may smooth the way,
A joyous word, may light the way,
A timely word, may lessen stress,
A loving word, may heal and bless.

Words can heal,
Words can pump new life,
Words can restore well being,
Use only helpful words.

What a Woman is for?

I haven't understood yet
what a woman is for, after all?
Is she only to bear pain and sorrow
and to shed tears,
always to work at home,
and to look after the children?
Or is she to smile when faces difficulties,
pangs and troubles?

She is the creator of a new life,
She gives her whole being as a wife,
She is a sister, she is a daughter,
who brings love, happiness, smile and laughter.

Doesn't she have her own life,
her own personality and identity?
Or is she meant always to stand at the back for the continuation of human race?
Whenever I see her I am filled with respect,
for she is the greatest gift of God.

Life is a Journey

When there is no friend,
When life is on the dead end,
When world is not a paradise,
When your confidence dies,
Tell yourself - Go on, THIS IS LIFE!

When things don't go right,
When there is no ray of light,
And it's too hard to survive,
Tell yourself - Go on, THIS IS LIFE!

When others don't respect you,
When you're not amongst the admirable few,
When for a question, you can't find a solution,
When all you're sure about, is confusion,
Tell yourself - Go on, THIS IS LIFE!

When your destination is miles apart,
When you don't know where to start,
When all you see around is pain,
When your hard work is in vain,
Tell yourself - Go on, THIS IS LIFE!

Even though all this happens,
Just have faith in self and face the life with smile,
Things will surely change one day,
Because ups and downs are part,
Of this journey called LIFE!

Winners Vs. Losers

The winner sees an answer for every problem.
The loser sees a problem in every answer.

The winner says, 'It may be difficult but it is possible.'
The loser says, 'It may be possible but it is too difficult.'

The winner says, 'I must do something.'
The loser says, 'Something must be done.'

Winners see the gain.
Losers see the pain.

Winners see possibilities.
Losers see problems.

Winners believe in winning.
Losers believe that for them to win
someone has to lose.

Almighty Benediction

Day one was spent with none having felt to have been beloved with an ambrosia, inborn
the instinctive, 'innocence'
that relieved a partition of that outward artificiality where one has to reach the lots to clutch,
but a frantic cobweb
trapping the innerself,
who pines to board the exotic plane,
without any visa, passport, restraint...

Ah! My heart aches.
Day two motivated to sing juvenilia that flickered in the sanguine hour of the "yes no" syndrome even submerged witnessing the
"WRESTLEMANIA"
wrathful and ruthless, to the apex
having exalted, reacted to Roman Reigns;
John Cena?
It's good not bad, as I enjoy to see that Yet, these golden moments turn sad with guilt that of what I have neglected to rejuvenate the present era for a charismatic, non-corrupt hue.
Do think over it, guys...
It's we, who can renew
The so-called "Golden Era!"

जीना इसी का नाम है

जिन्दगी के इस राह में
मैं यूँ गुनगुनाता चला,
कई साखाँ सूख गई
और मैं मुस्कराता चला।।

मतलब की इस दुनिया में
कई बार अपनों का मुझे प्यार मिला,
जब हो गया अकेला मैं
माँ-बाप जैसों का लाड़ मिला।।

कुछ अपने मुझसे छूट गए
कुछ ने खुद ही मुझको छोड़ दिया,
अफ़सोस था उनके जाने पर
और उनकी यादों ने मुझको तोड़ दिया।

खड़ा हुआ मैं टूट कर भी,
सबको यह बतलाने को,
“देखो, मैं जुड़ चुका हूँ फिर से
और कई बदलाव हैं मुझमें आने को।।

बदल चुका हूँ, कुछ करने को मैं
कुछ करके जरूर दिखलाऊँगा?
चाहे रूठ जाए मुझसे कोई
मैं आगे बढ़ता जाऊँगा”।।

ବେଳେବେଳେ ଏମିତି ହୁଏ
ତୁମେ ନଦୀ ପାଳଟିଯାଅ, ଆଉ
ନମାନି କିଛି ବାଧା କି ବନ୍ଧନ ମୁଁ
ଭାସିଯାଏ ତମରି ସୁଅରେ...
ତମେ ପତରଟେ ଆଉ ମୁଁ
ସେଇ ଅସହାୟ ପିମ୍ପୁଡ଼ି, ଯିଏ
ଭାସୁଥାଏ ଅସ୍ଥିର ପାଣିରେ ତମ
ଭରସାରେ...
ସ୍ରୋତକୁ ଭର୍ତ୍ତିକି ସମ୍ଭାଳି
ସମ୍ଭାଳୁଥାଅ ମୋତେ ଅତି ଯତ୍ନରେ...
ତମେ ନଈ, ତମେ ସୁଅ
ତମେ ହିଁ ସୁଅ ମୁହଁ ପତର
ମୁଁ ପଠାରେ ତତସୁ ଅପେକ୍ଷାରେ ଥିବା
ନାଉରାଟେ, ନଉକାଟେ କି
ହାରିଯାଇଥିବା ପିମ୍ପୁଡ଼ିଟେ ଯୁଗ
ଯୁଗର...

ମାତୃଭାଷା

ଯଦି ମୁଁ କୁଛି ଭୁଲ୍ କଲି
କହି ପାର ମୋତେ
ଅବୋଲକରା କି ବୁଝୁ
ବଦ୍‌ମାସ୍ ଅଥବା ମୂର୍ଖ
ନହେଲେ ନିହାତି ବାଜେ ଲୋକ,
ଦେଇପାର
ଦି'ଗାଲରେ ଦି' ଶକ୍ତ ବାପୁଜୀ
ମାତ୍ର ମୋତେ
ଗାଳିଗୁଲ୍ କରି କୁହନାହିଁ
ରାସ୍‌କେଲ୍ - ଯୁସ୍‌କେଲ୍,
ଇଡ଼ିଅଟ୍ ଅଥବା ନନ୍‌ସେନ୍ସ
ମୁଁ ଯେ ମୋ ମାତୃଭାଷାକୁ
ପ୍ରାଣଭରି ପ୍ରେମ କରେ ।
ତମେ ସିନା
ନିଜ ମାଆକୁ ମନ୍ତ୍ରି ଡାକ
କବର ଦେଇ ମାରିଦେଉଛ
ନିଜ ବାପାକୁ
ମୃତ ବୋଲି ଘୋଷଣା କରୁଛ
ତମେ ହିଁ ଜାଣିଛ
ତମେ ଯେତେବେଳେ ଯାହା କିଛି
ନୀରବରେ ଚିତ୍କାର
ସେ ନିରବତାର ଭାଷା କଣ,
ଯେଉଁ ଭାଷାରେ
ସ୍ୱପ୍ନଦେଖ, ପ୍ରଭୁଙ୍କୁ ପ୍ରାର୍ଥନା କରି ।
ତଥାପି ଏତେ ସୁଖ
ଓଡ଼ିଆକୁ ଆପଣାଇ ।
